

CBA strives to provide and deliver a high quality internationally accredited MBA Program to address the needs of managers and executives with varied cultural and professional backgrounds in commercial, governmental and not-for-profit organizations, both nationally and regionally. In addition, graduated participants will be individuals committed to creative and innovative behavior, critical and strategic thinking, life-long learning, personal integrity, social responsibility and leadership of organizational change.